A Spinning Wheel from Denmark will be in operation, Tuesday evening, at the Band Hall.

Jno. J. Dunbar has rented the building now occupied by J. F. Gump, and takes possession Jan. 1st.

Quite a decided change in the weather. The manipulators of the polar stop-cock must have thrown her wide open.

The "rag car" made McCook, Monday evening, and consequently our merchants are taking in "rags extensively."

The Public Mirror says: "The latest rumor is, concerning the B. & M. cut-off, that it will be built to Cambridge." By the by, our exchanges are kept rather busy prognosticating about the cut-off.

Will Israel, who has been working in THE TRIBUNE office for some months past, gave a very enjoyable party to about a dozen of his young companions, on Saturday evening, at the residence of his brother on Mt. Zion.

The skating rink is becoming a favorite resort and many are attaining a considerable degree of proficiency in handling the rollers. Saturday afternoon was devoted to the ladies, who resorted thither in numbers and made the rink lively for a while. Per asper ad astra, which by interpretation signifies, through many falls to perfection, in roller skating parlance, ladies.

Jack Rollins run into a hand-car, last Saturday, and demolished 73's head-light, and disfigured her cow-catcher. Jack also blew out a cylinder-head, and broke an eccentric, the day before.

Superintendent Campbell is our new Road Overseer—in District 8. P. M. Scott asked him what office he wanted on election morning. Mr. C. replied Road Overseer, in a joking manner, and the boys elected him.

Messrs. George J. Meyers and William E. Riggs are building a comfortable home for John Wirz, near Stoughton. 'Ere long, the frame and brick dwelling will supersede the sod house and dug-outs in Red Willow county.

Rogers have received a stock of overcoats that exceeds anything ever brought into the valley. They range in price from $3 up to the finest, and the man who goes around shaking with cold when he can get one of these good, warm coats at a price so low that all can buy, had better go back east and give up the ghost, then probably he will have no use for one.

Joseph Menard of Chicago, is the gentleman's name who has purchased the two lots above the Citizen's Bank. He has returned to Chicago where a plan of the proposed brick building is being drawn, and when completed the same will be sent on to J. R. Phelan who, we are informed, will give out the contract. A hall, something we are greatly in need of, 50x70, will occupy the second story.

Representative-elect George Hocknell has moved into his new house, situated beautifully on the brow of the hill. This is unquestionably the finest residence in southwestern Nebraska, west of Hastings. It contains seven rooms, bath-room, etc., and is finished within in fine style. There is a large, wide portico around three sides of the building, and is a piece of workmanship withal of which Mr. McIntyre, the builder, may well feel proud.

The Hastings Gazette-Journal bewails the absence of social pleasure, and the epidemic state of the matrimonial market, in that bright little city, thus:

It seems that the young people of Hastings have given up social pleasure for awhile and have turned their attention to getting married. No social event of any kind since last summer some time. Is this as it should be?

Come up to the Magic City, and get a few points.

This peculiar and appropriate paragraph was picked from the paper published at Juniata: "Persons patronizing papers please pay promptly; the pecuniary prospects of the press possess peculiar power in pushing public prosperity. Pay the printer promptly; in promptly paying patrons, his pocket-book plensh, printer puts pen to paper in peace prints pleasing pictures of passing phases promptly, and people peruse his popular paper peculiarly pleasant.

A sixteen-year-old boy by the name of Phillips, one of the postal clerks on the B. & M. railroad, was arrested by Major J. W. Furry at Wilber Wednesday, of last week, and brought to this city. He was taken before United States Commissioner Billingsley, and was charged with embezzling property passing through the United States mail, while in his custody as postal agent. The goods the youngster is charged with appropriating consist of stockings, dress goods, handkerchiefs, false hair, etc. After the preliminary examination the lad was bound over in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the United States Court in Omaha, on the 13th. His father became his bondsman.—Lincoln Journal.

The following articles will be exhibited at the "New England Supper" on Tuesday evening: Dishes 100 years old; clock 100 years old; paper containing notice of Washington's death, and Jeff. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCartney, and visiting friends from St. Louis, Misses Wilkinson and Papin, were present at the sociable, Friday evening. That they enjoyed themselves, we had ocular demonstration.

Messrs. Forbes and Chenery went down to Indianola, on No. 40, Sunday. They had packages and packages, but the packages in the tin boxes "took the cake." Apropos, the county seat has become quite a Sunday resort.

Miss Vaughn, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. C. Campbell, for some months past, started for her home in Holt county, Monday. Her many friends regret her departure at this time—when there is every promise of a pleasant winter season.

The Sociable.

The sociable which was advertised through our columns, and more extensively viva voce, was held in the Dining Hall, Friday evening, by the ladies of the Episcopal church, assisted by a large number of their friends. Supt. Campbell kindly allowed the ladies the use of the Dining Room for the occasion, and Mrs. Saunders, in addition to a very liberal donation, gave every assistance possible. All the refreshments were donated by the ladies of McCook, and the musicians who played such fine music, also rendered gratuitous service, for which the ladies feel grateful. By 9 o'clock between 75 and 100 persons had assembled in the Dining Room, comfortably filling the same. Dancing was instituted and continued until about 12 o'clock, when refreshments were passed to the dancers and spectators. After partaking of the delicacies offered by the ladies, dancing was kept up until about 2 o'clock, when the merry party reluctantly disbanded and retired to their homes. While the social was not as great a success financially as was desirable, in every other particular it was one of the most enjoyable occasions of the many pleasant ones in which our society has indulged this fall. Indianola was brilliantly represented, and their party evidently enjoyed themselves.

CURED BY

Dr. Rush's Regulator, FOR HEART TROUBLES.

Wm. G. Osgoodby, the well-known safe manufacturer of Buffalo, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Newark, and Atlanta, Ga., says:

OFFICE OF OSGOODBY'S IMPROVED SAFES, 17 S. Broad St. reet, ATLANTA, GA., October 15th, 1881.

Dr. Rush's Medical Association: DEAR DOCTORS.—The three bottles of "Dr. Rush's Regulator" I ordered were received by express last week. I have taken nearly one bottle and am thoroughly satisfied with the result. For over two years I have been troubled with sharp pain at my heart. My physician, upon examination, pronounced it enlargement of the heart and was unable to give me any relief. The trouble grew worse until I had become convinced that I could not be cured. While in New York City, last week, I called upon one of the most prominent physicians there, who charged me $25 for an examination and then recommended your "Regulator." Knowing you to be a regular Medical Association, and not a patent medicine scheme, I ordered the three bottles. I have not been troubled since I commenced taking it, but shall continue and take the entire three bottles so as to obtain a permanent cure. You have my sincere thanks. I am, gentlemen, Very respectfully, Wm. G. OSGOODBY.
